COFFEE
& LUNCH

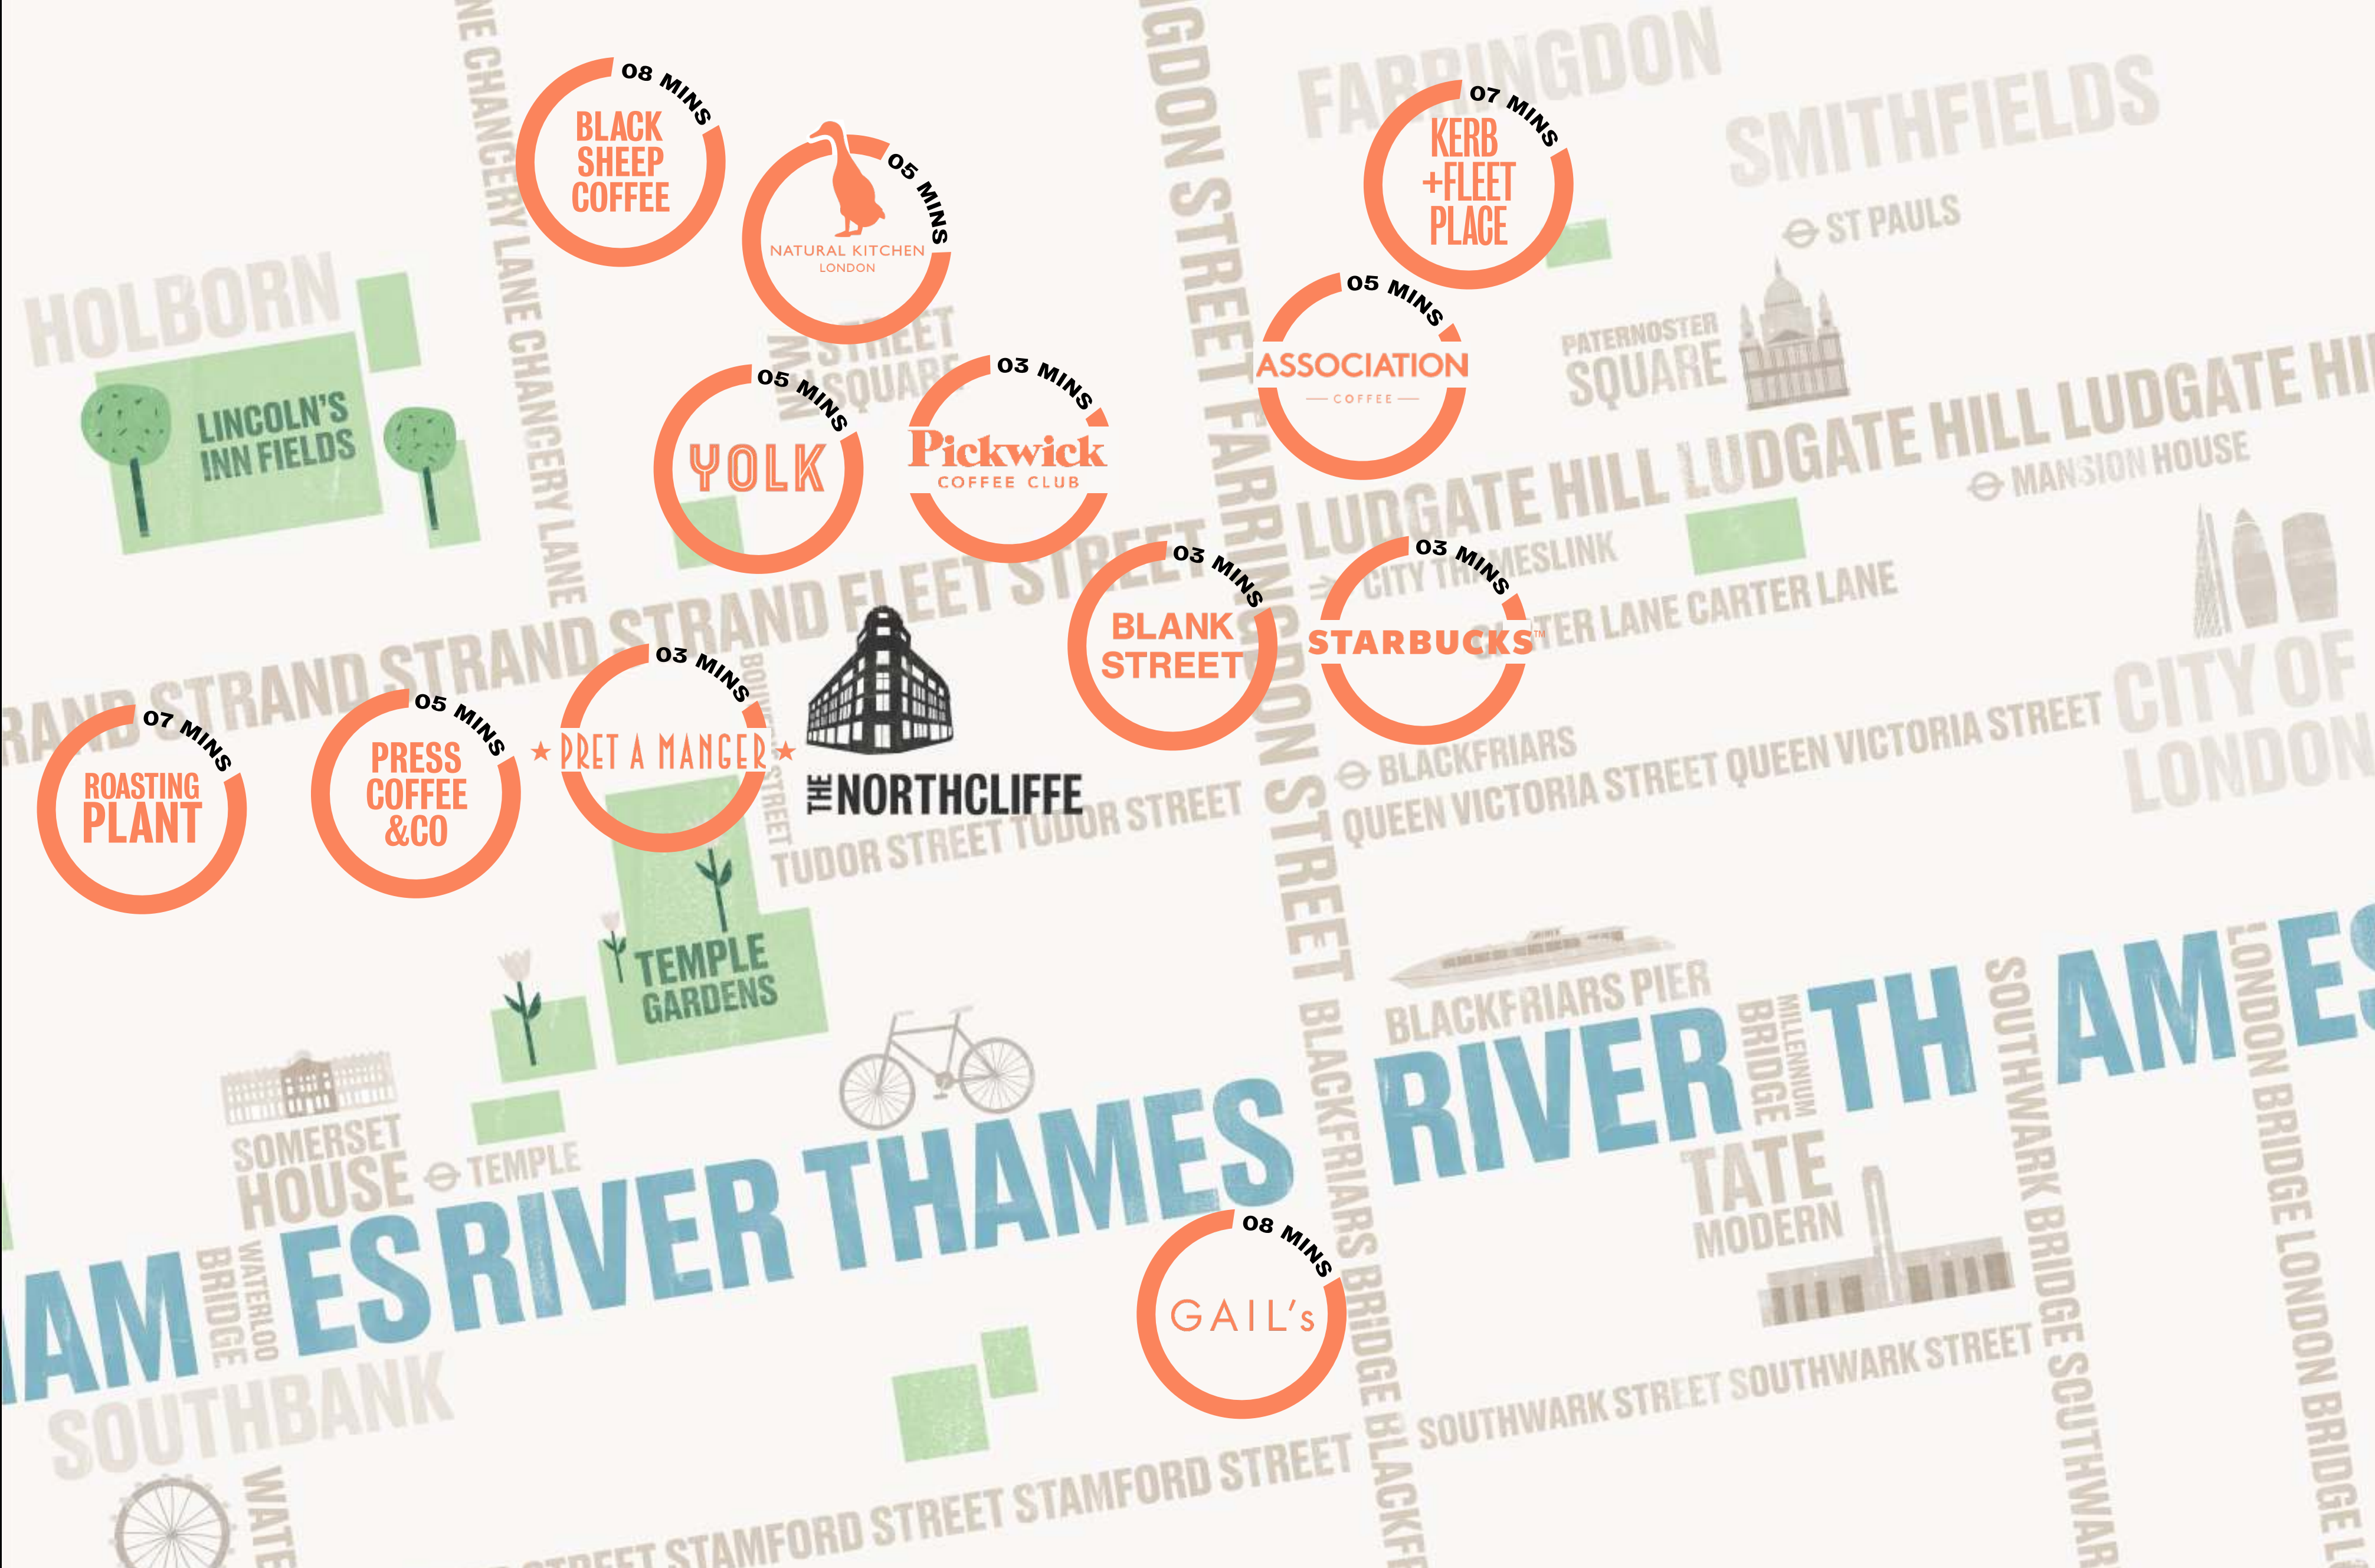

The Northcliffe is positioned in an area rich in culture and amenities.

And it's all within a ten-minute walk.

DINING

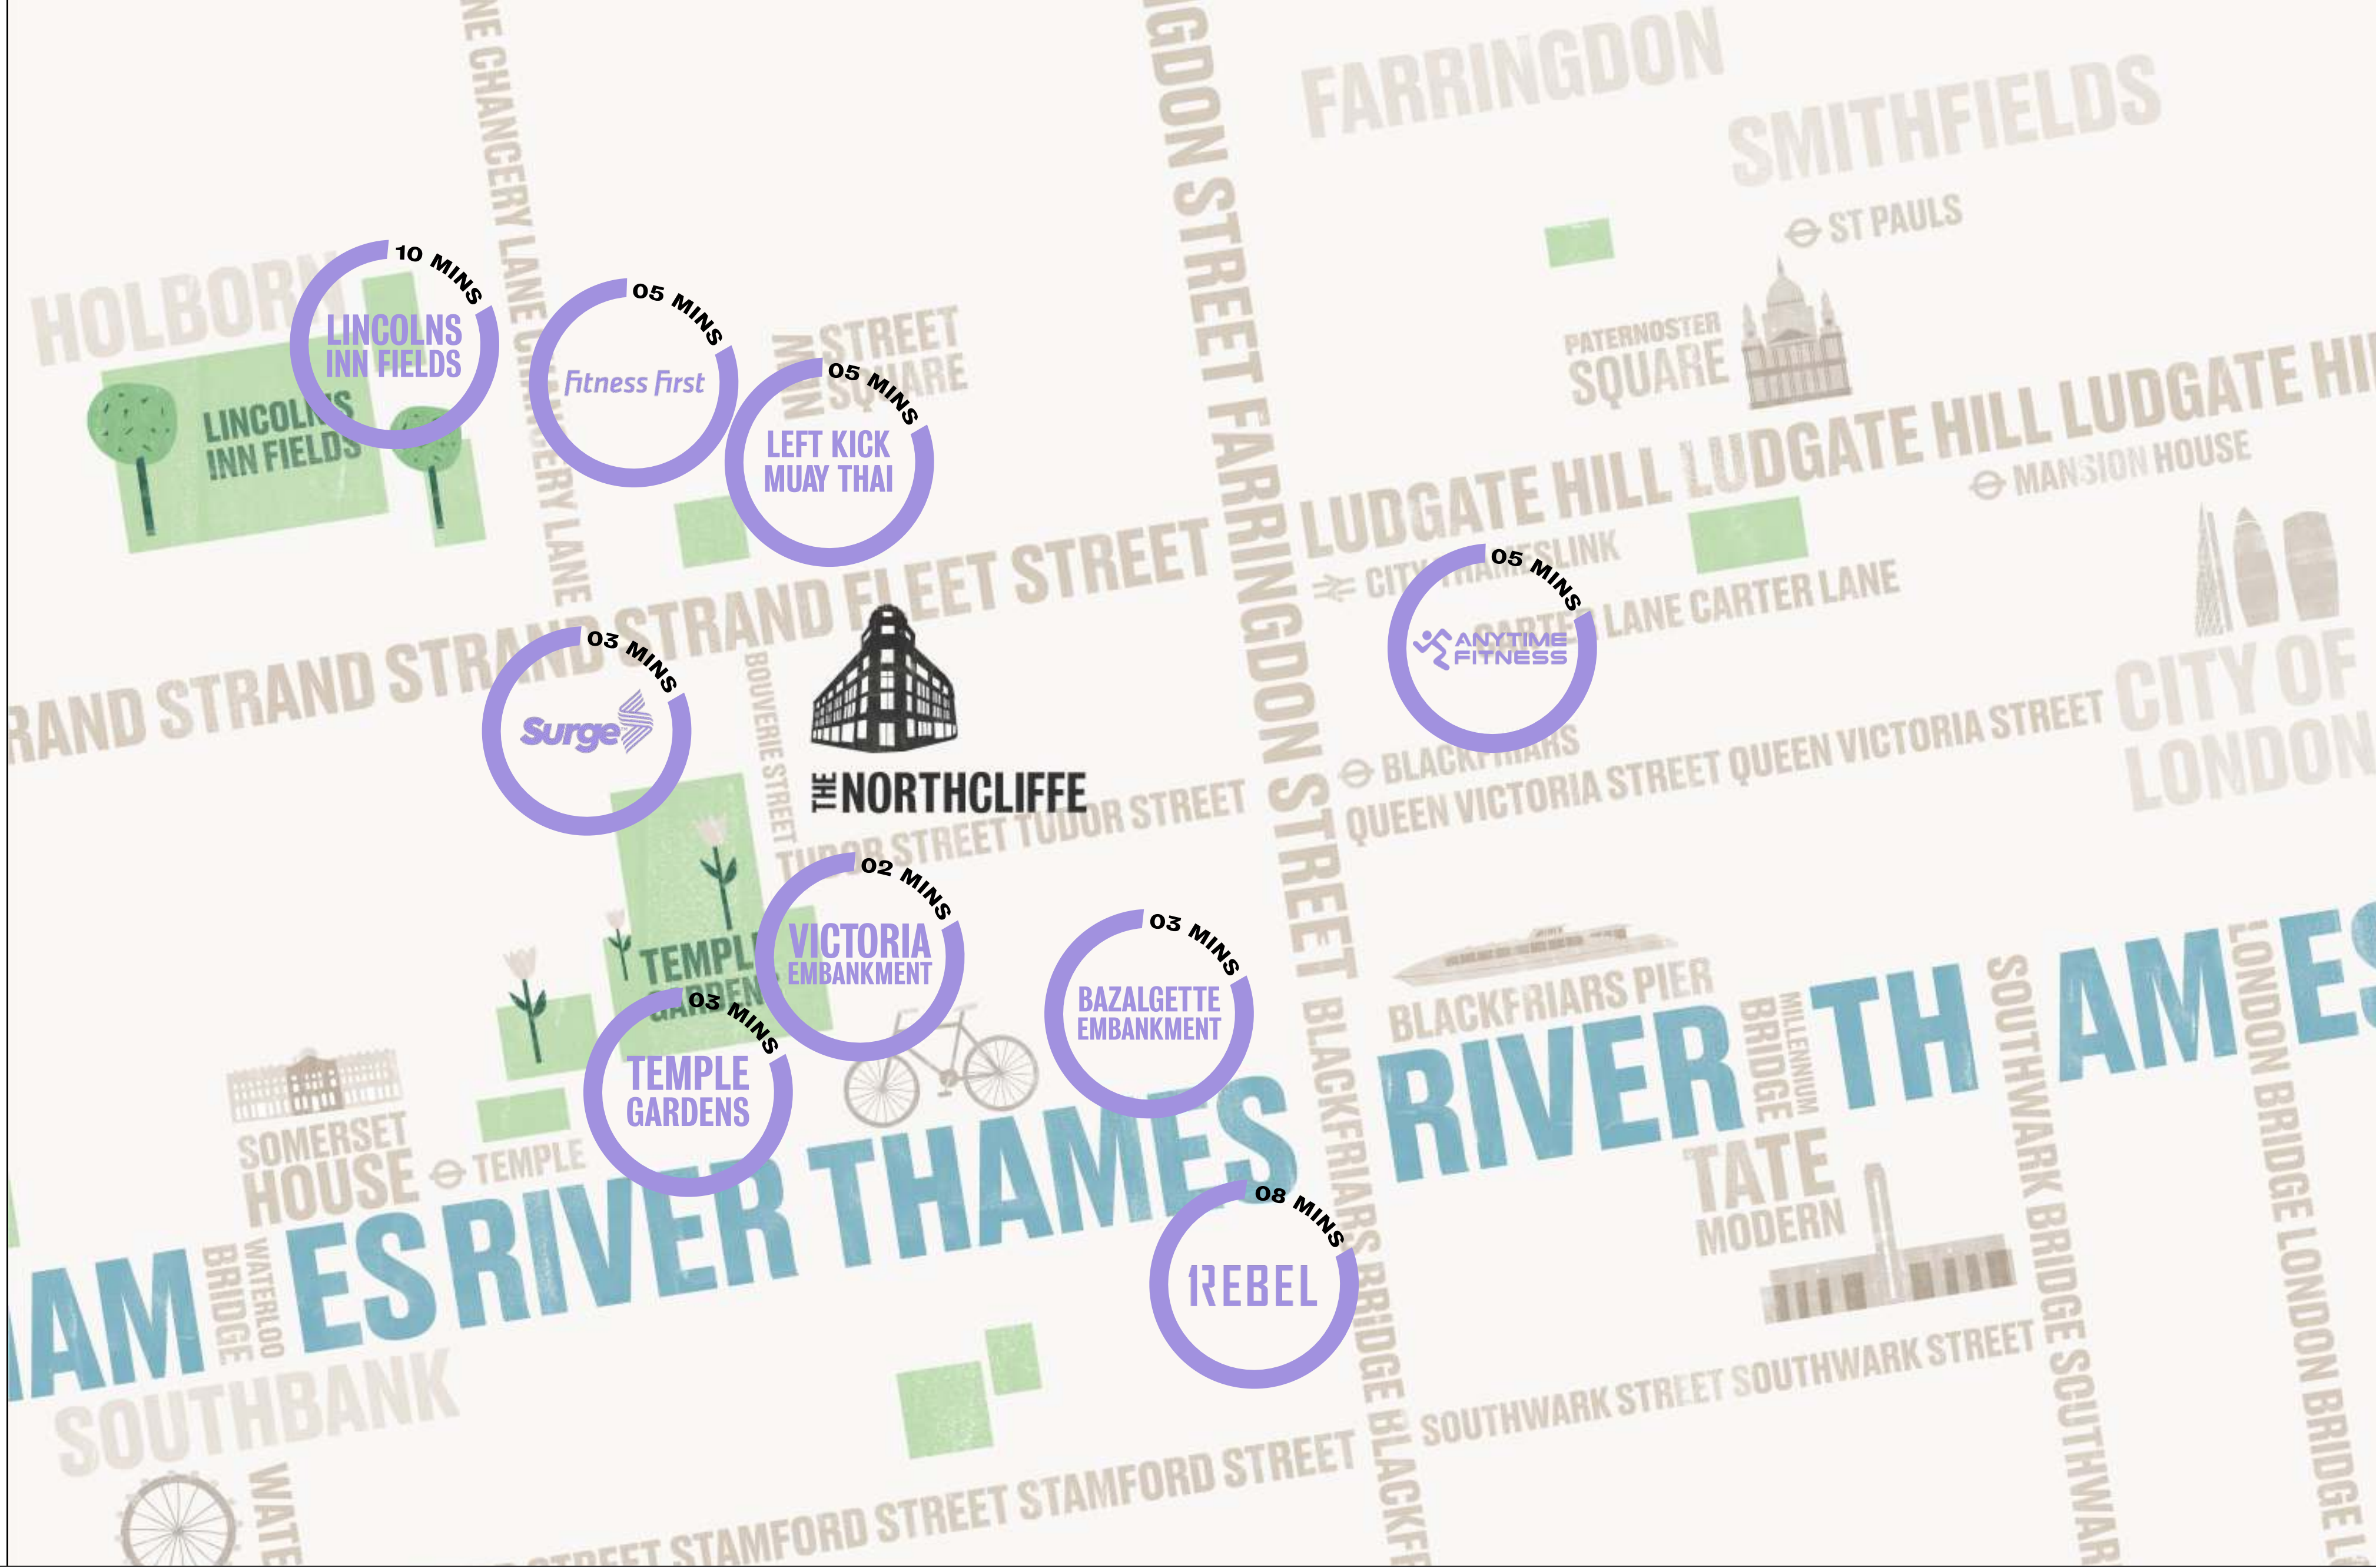

Foraging for fantastic food or your daily caffeine fix? Surrounded by so many of the capital's artisan coffee favourites and foodie highlights, you're spoilt for choice. Brooklyn-based brand Blank Street is just one great shout. And the Natural Kitchen is a winner for delicious healthy lunches.

WELLNESS IS A WALK IN THE PARK

Workday wellbeing is high-priority at The Northcliffe. And fitting fitness into your schedule is effortless, with great gyms and open spaces close at hand. Just over the river, there's 1Rebel's high-intensity workout studio. A short stroll away is Temple Gardens, a tranquil spot to enjoy fresh air and top up your Vitamin D.

FINDING DINING IS A DODDLE

If you're looking for the acclaimed chef's signature dishes, head to CORD by Le Cordon Bleu on Fleet Street, or step across to Cigalon on Chancery Lane for a taste of exquisite French cuisine. Alternatively, jump over to Carter Lane which offers a smorgasbord of culinary delights for working lunches, client entertaining or after-work treats.

A CULTURE FIX IS A CINCH

This central base offers both inspiration and entertainment. The St Bride Foundation, housed in a stunning Victorian listed building, features a frequent lineup of design events and creative workshops. Alternatively, hop across the Millennium Bridge to the Tate Modern and Globe Theatre to indulge in all things artistic.

RUNNING IS A BREEZE

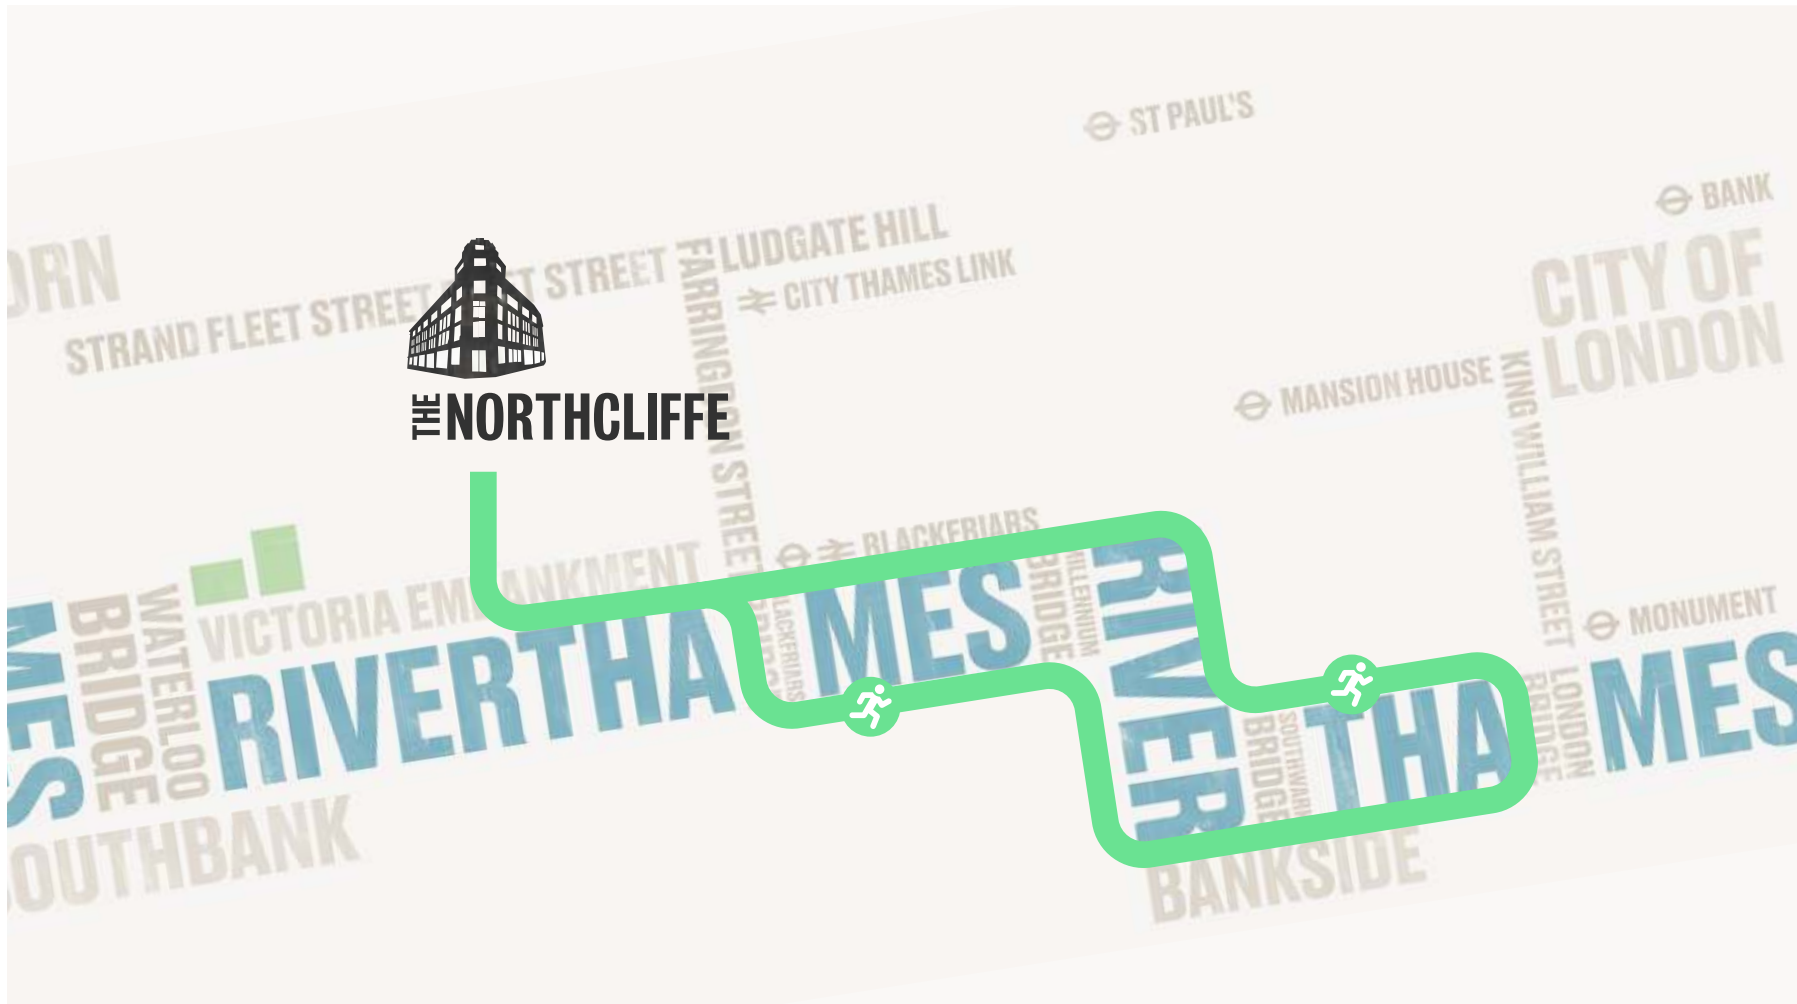

Put on your running shoes, switch on your Fitbit and start exploring your great local running routes. From The Northcliffe, we've mapped out four popular circuits, from a gentle 3.7k jog around Bankside to a more challenging 6.5k run to St James's Park. And they all include Thames-side stretches – there's no better place in city to disconnect from the office and recharge.

● Park Trail 6.5 km

● Parliament Run 5 km

● Bankside Sprint 3.7 km

● City Circuit 6.4 km
